4. What kind of spend are qualified for the minimum spend of S$600? Can my Supplementary Cardmember's spend be included?

Retail transactions that are in local and foreign currencies charged to the Card Account (i.e. transaction date) in a calendar month and posted to the Card Account (i.e. posting date) at the point of computation of the cashback are qualified as minimum spend. It excludes posted 0% interest-free instalment plan monthly transactions, posted My Preferred Payment instalment plan monthly transactions, interest, finance charges, cash withdrawal, Cash Advance, balance transfer, AXS payments, SAM online bill payments, bill payments via internet banking and all fees charged by DBS.

Your Supplementary Cardmember's spend can be included as part of the minimum spend requirement.

5. What does online purchases refer to?

It refers to retail transaction for goods and services made via the internet and processed by the respective merchants/acquirers as an online transaction through Visa/MasterCard Worldwide networks, charged to the Card Account (i.e. transaction date) in a calendar month and posted into the Card Account (i.e. posting date) at the point of computation of the Cashback.

6. How does DBS determine an online transaction?

We determine an online transaction based on system indicators. These indicators are decided by the merchant and their banker, and passed to DBS when the transaction is posted to the card.

7. What does Visa payWave purchases refer to?

It refers to transactions made via Visa payWave through a contactless terminal via the Card or mobile wallet (Apple Pay, Samsung Pay and Google Pay), charged to the Card Account (i.e. transaction date) in a calendar month and posted into the Card Account (i.e. posting date) at the point of computation of the Cashback. This excludes EZ-Link top-ups, NETS FlashPay top-ups and Transit Link related transactions.

8. What is the difference between transaction date and posting date?

Transaction date refers to the date when a purchase is made. Posting date refers to the date when the transaction is received by the card issuer, DBS Bank. As merchants may make a settlement a few days after the transaction has been made, posting date may be a few days later than the transaction date. As such, DBS Bank has no control over when merchant records the transaction.

9. What are the transactions that do not qualify for cashback?

Cashback will not be awarded for the following:
